

Our Great Separation Sale, The Sheep From The Goats

OPENS UP

MONDAY, JAN'Y. 21.

We have gone through our entire stock and every article that was the least bit off style, off color, or off shape--in our Shoe stock where sizes are broken or the vamps a little short or where the soles have been soiled by trying on--these have been set aside and we call them GOATS for want of a better name. This process has been carried on in every department and the result can be seen in our Ad. on following page.

In Addition to our offering these GOATS at ridiculous low prices, we at the same time offer large discounts on entire stock.

All in All this will be the Greatest Sale in our history.

CREAM OF NEWS.

IF IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN HAS IT.

Stranger Killed on the Rail--Housebreakers Held--Convict to Hang--Young Preacher Ordained--Morrison Held Over--Other News Items.

Held for House Breaking.

Mr. W. H. Fyke's pantry was entered by thieves Saturday night and a lot of flour and meat was taken away. The robbers entered the building by cutting the slats of the blinds and then hoisting one of the windows. The matter was placed in the hands of the police and Sunday morning Fann e Bell Diuguid, Nancy Phillips and George Bush, all col., were arrested, charged with the crime. Flour had been spilled along between Mr. Fyke's and the Diuguid woman's house, which gave the officers a clew. The examining trial of the trio will be held this morning before Judge Hanberry. The woman claims that Bush brought the flour to their house about 4 o'clock Sunday morning. Some of the stolen property was found in the house by the police.

Lady Burned to Death.

Mrs. J. W. Welborn, living a few miles from Greenville, met with an accident last week which ended in death. While standing in front of the fire her clothing caught, and no one being at hand to extinguish the flames she literally burned to a crisp before help reached her. She was about thirty years of age and was a lady universally liked and her horrible death was a great shock to the community.

Turkey Shooting.

On Saturday several of Guthrie's crack shots engaged in an old fashioned turkey shooting near that place. Quite a large crowd witnessed the sport and some very fine shooting was done. The birds were not put up as targets, but were used as prizes for the best marksmanship. Officer Rickman, town marshal of that place, made the best score, securing five turkeys.

Postoffice Improvements.

Important improvements are being made in the postoffice building. Several large windows have been cut in the west or Virginia street side of the building and the mail department will be changed to that side thus throwing the boxes on the east side. Postmaster Wilgus will have a private office fitted up in front to the right of the door and other changes will be made.

Convict to Hang.

Gov. Brown has pardoned George McKee, a convict in the state penitentiary. McKee while serving a three years' sentence, murdered Charles Thomas, colored a fellow-convict. He was tried a few days ago and sentenced to be hanged. The pardon was issued in order to allow McKee's latter sentence to take its course and he will be hung as the law directs.

Death of Two Sisters.

Miss Sallie P. Pool died of old age at her home near Bainbridge, Thursday. She was 81 years old. On Sunday afternoon, Miss Becky, a sister, died of paralysis, after a long illness, aged 78 years. The latter lady had been blind for several years and had been in feeble health for a number of years. The interment took place at the family burying ground.

Four Converts Baptized.

Rev. W. O. Carver, of Church Hill, preached at the Baptist church Sunday night and his sermon was a very entertaining discourse and showed a thorough knowledge of the subject he discussed. After the sermon Pastor Nash immersed four young men in the baptistry under the pulpit.

Rev. Thos. Lyle Ordained.

Mr. Thomas S. Lyle, a son of Mr. E. B. Lyle, of Church Hill, was ordained at South Union Saturday as a minister of the Baptist church. The pastor, Rev. W. O. Carver, was assisted by Rev. C. H. Nash, of this city, who preached the ordination sermon.

Morrison Held Over.

The examining trial of Wm. Morrison, who killed C. M. Minton, was held before Judge Hanberry last week and Morrison was held to answer under a bond of $1,000 which he gave.

A STRANGER KILLED.

An Unknown German Run Over by a Train Near Crofton.

An unknown man was killed Saturday night in a cut two miles South of Crofton, while walking on the L. & N. track. He was struck by a train and instantly killed, being struck about the head and back. The body was not crushed or mutilated. The body was taken to Crofton and Judge Clark held an inquest and the verdict was that the deceased was an unknown man, supposed to be a German shoemaker, as he had a sack of shoemaker's tools with him. Preparations were being made to bury him at the expense of parties who raised some money for that purpose, but Sunday Coroner James Allensworth went to Crofton and after holding another inquest had the body brought to this city. The coroner's verdict was as follows: "We, the jury, find that Sam Rondo came to his death by being knocked from the track by an L. & N. train, two miles South of Crofton, Saturday night, Jan. 19."

Wm. Rowland, West Clements, P. S. Davis, R. J. Parrish, Chas. Hopson, P. Rollins.

Sam Rondo was a half crazy character who until recently lived over J. F. Pyle's grocery in this city. Numerous parties who knew Sam went to Pyle & Renshaw's yesterday where the body was and failed to identify the man as Rondo. The stranger was a man about 50 years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, with square features strongly German in appearance, aquiline nose, thin dark hair, face shaved to edge of chin and a stubby growth of gray whiskers under the chin and on the neck. He was clad in shabby clothes, dark pants, patched and ragged, and a workman's shirt with a pocket in the left side. He carried a set of shoemaker's tools and had $1.05 in his pocket.

There was a slight resemblance to Rondo, but those who know Sam best insist that the dead man was some other person. The Coroner had the corpse buried yesterday in the Potter's field at the public expense.

SLICK SAM HATCHER.

Several Times a Fugitive, Only to be Returned to Prison.

Sam Hatcher, col., who has made his escape from the work house several times during the past few years, is again behind the bars, and it is to be hoped that he will serve out his sentence this time. Extra pains have been taken by Manager Vaughan to keep this prisoner inside the walls, but he always manages to leave at will, it seems. Hatcher was caught in Henderson this time, and was brought back a few days ago and is now in the work house. He was sent to this institution in 1890, but soon escaped and was not re-captured until some time in '92. After eleven days of service he got away again and enjoyed freedom for nearly two years more. He was brought before Judge Hanberry in Sept. last and was given 368 days. This time he was returned to serve the same number of days, but it remains to be seen how much of his sentence he will satisfy before making another break for liberty.

SEPARATE COACH CASE.

The Court Will be Called Upon to Pass on a New Issue.

The January term of the United States court will convene in Owensboro on the 28th inst. The Owensboro Messenger in making the fact says that the case to which most interest attaches is that of W. H. Anderson vs. the Louisville and Nashville railroad or the separate coach case, as it is better known. The constitutional question has already been decided so far as it relates to interstate commerce. The railroad company has set up its common law right to separate passengers in any manner it may see fit, and alleges in pursuance of this that it has a right to certain cars for the comfort of its employees, and the court will be called upon to pass on the constitutional question of this right.

Convict, A. E. Faustre, of Newport, who sued the State for his "good time," which shortened his three years' term from June till January 2, has won his case and Judge Cantrill has ordered his release. He was in TWENTY WERE LOST.

STATE OF MISSOURI STRIKES ROCKS BELOW WOLF CREEK, KY.

The Vessel Sinks in Five Minutes After Striking, in Fifty Feet of Water--Texas and Pilot House Floated--The Steamer Belonged to the "White Collar" Line and was Valued at $30,000.

The New Orleans steamer, State of Missouri, sank 75 miles below Louisville Saturday night and 20 lives were lost. The boat left Louisville that morning and passed Wolf Creek at about 5:30 p. m. While the pilot was trying to flank the bend a short distance below, he ran close to the bank. The current at the point caught the stern of the boat. She was carried steadily toward the rocks, making a large hole in the stern. After striking, the boat drifted off and sank in five minutes in 50 feet of water. The people aboard were panic stricken when they heard the crash. They had no time to prepare for their safety, and officers, passengers and crew seized anything in sight that would keep them above water. Capt. Joe Conlon, first clerk Wehman and second clerk Chas. Howard, with five lady passengers and pilots Pell and son managed to reach shore uninjured. The second mate and engineer on watch were picked up by the steamer Tell City and the City of Owensboro picked up four men and left them at Owensboro. The others, about twenty in number, including male passengers and members of the crew, it is thought went down with the vessel. Captain Conlon, master of the vessel, is only 28 years old, but is an experienced river man and very popular. Names of the lost have not been learned. The vessel was well insured.

MATRIMONIAL.

Cornelius-Marquess--Last Thursday afternoon, at the Gooch House, in this city, Mr. H. M. Cornelius and Miss Valora Marquess were married; Rev. W. E. Foulks officiating.

Allen-Sisk. Mr. R. E. Allen and Mrs. Mary F. Sisk, of the White Plains country, were married last Wednesday.

Crouch-Hurt. Mr. S. R. Crouch and Miss Mary Hurt, both of near Fairview, were united in marriage last Wednesday.

RICHARDS-DAGG. On the 31st inst. Miss Clayton Dagg, of this city, will be married to Mr. Virgil Richards, of Birmingham, Ala. The ceremony will take place at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. Clayton Miller, in Birmingham.

Mr. C. Wian Courts, the wealthy and well-known banker, of Russellville, Ky., and Miss Ella Craig, of Washington Court House, O., were married at the latter place last week.

The following announcement from the Louisville Post, is the first publication of a social event that has been a subject of discussion in this city for some time, though the exact date was not known.

"The engagement of Mr. J. Rogers Barr, son of Judge John W. Barr, and Miss Elizabeth Wood, of Hopkinsville, is announced, the wedding to occur during the last week in February. Mr. Barr was graduated from Princeton college about 6 years ago, and shortly after his graduation he connected himself with the engineer's department of the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern railroad. He was much liked by the C. O. & S. W. people on account of his efficient work, and they parted with him about four months ago with regret when he accepted charge of the engineer's department of the Lexington and Eastern. Miss Wood is an exceedingly attractive young woman, and there is none more popular in the southern part of the State, where she is well-known."

Went to the West.

Mr. C. J. Wilson, a Guthrie grocer, made an assignment a few days ago to David Minton, of that place, for the benefit of his creditors. Liabilities $16,000, assets $9,000. His collections and disbursements are assigned as the cause of the failure. Mr. Wilson had been unfortunate before, and was conducting his business at a great loss at the time of the last crash. His stock of goods has been sold to L. A. & Co., a new firm, who will continue to
